Use this Community Asset Map as a thought starter—a tool to help you think about the different sectors and groups in your community that need or use high speed broadband, and how you might connect or work with them to meet your community internet needs.